

KORNER'S FOLLY/ DOWNTOWN KERNERSVILLE

JANUARY 29TH
8AM - 5PM

Join us to visit Downtown Kernersville and take a tour of Körner's Folly, constructed in 1880, the home of Jule Körner, an artist and designer who created the structure to showcase his work. Featuring 22 rooms, 7 levels, 15 fireplaces, and the first private little theater in the United States, this architectural treasure offers visitors a whimsical trip to the heyday of Victorian North Carolina. .

 Intensive Walking***

You will go on a guided tour of the home. There are many stairs while on tour and the house is not wheelchair accessible. However, the stairs are taken in increments as you move through the house, and there are handrails and holds.

REGISTER NOW

City Resident: $25
Non-City Resident: $30
Lunch NOT Included In Price

Must Register By: January 8th

<https://loom.ly/h791AYg>

